

How to Make a Gift to The Wilderness Society by Wire Transfer + ACH

Thank you for considering a gift to The Wilderness Society by wire transfer! Making a gift by wire transfer is a wonderful way to ensure your support of our critical work to protect our nation's natural heritage is put to good use right away — and it's easy!

Step 1: To make a gift by wire transfer or ACH, share the following information with your banker, trust officer, or other financial advisor:

Bank Name:	PNC Bank
Account Name:	The Wilderness Society Operating Account
Routing Number:	031000053 (Wire Transfer) 054000030 (ACH)
Account Number:	5368594778
Swift code:	PNCCUS33
Main Address:	500 First Avenue Pittsburgh, PA 15219

Step 2: Tell us about your gift! Many wire transfers do not include the names of our donors, and we want to be able to thank you for your gift. Notifying us is as easy as sending an email to Andrea O'Brien at wiretransfer@tw.s.org or calling her at (202) 429-2626 with the following information:

- Your name, address, and phone number
- Amount of the wire transfer
- Purpose of the gift (if other than unrestricted)

And that's it! If you have any questions, let us know. You can reach us by email at wiretransfer@tw.s.org or by phone at (202) 429-2626.

Thank you for helping us protect our precious wildlands!

1801 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Suite 200, Washington, DC 20006
(202) 429-2626 | wiretransfer@tw.s.org