

How to Make a Gift to The Wilderness Society Through Your Will or Living Trust

Want to make a big difference for the future of wilderness without affecting cash flow in your lifetime? A gift through your will or living trust is a simple, flexible, and revocable way for you to ensure wildlands are protected for years to come.

Step 1: Making a gift through your will or living trust is as easy as asking your estate planning attorney to include the following suggested wording:

After fulfilling all other provisions, I hereby give, devise and bequeath to The Wilderness Society (Federal Tax ID: 53-0167933) a charitable organization duly incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia and located at 1801 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20006, ____% of the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate [or $____ if specific amount].

Step 2: Tell us about your gift! We want to thank you for your generosity and welcome you into the Robert Marshall Council!

And it's that easy! If you have any questions, let us know. You can reach us by email at giftplanning@tws.org or by phone at 1-888-736-4897. We look forward to talking with you!

By including us in your will or living trust, you're demonstrating your commitment to our nation's treasured wildlands and taking your place alongside other conservation leaders.

Thank you for considering this special gift!
